

Kevin Robart: Magic Bio

Kevin Robart has been recognized as one of Canada's premier magicians and psychic entertainers. Along with his amazing talent he also brings more than 30 years of solid, professional experience to your next event.

In addition to performing for some of the Canada's most powerful companies, Kevin has also entertained in the United States, and the United Kingdom; for Kevin his most memorable performance was in Ottawa on Parliament Hill for the official Canada Day celebrations.

Kevin has also established himself as a respected Master of Ceremonies and an award winning speaker with Toastmasters International.

Whether you are looking for one of Kevin's standard well-polished performances or something customized for your event, you can trust the quality that his many years of experience will deliver.