

Matthew DiSero Bio :

Having worked with comedy greats such as Drew Carey and Jerry Seinfeld, and performed on the international hit TV show "Penn and Teller : Fool Us", and submitted for a Canadian Comedy Award, Matthew performs everywhere from Casino's in Las Vegas to corporate events in Tokyo. Headline performances at Canada's Walk of Fame Ceremonies, Ohio's "Great Lakes Comedy Festival", Regina Comedy Festival and Moncton's HubCap Comedy festivals, have led to television appearances on the Comedy Network, ABC, The CW network and Bite TV.

Matthew DiSero is both a comedian and magician, blending the two disciplines together to create the perfect interactive, clean and funny show for after dinner and special events. Talent buyers the world over regularly hire Matthew because he is consistently funny, entertaining and on target with their audiences. In demand internationally Matthew DiSero can also be seen performing on some of the world's largest cruise lines such as Princess, NCL, Holland America and Royal Caribbean. Additionally Matt donates his time to performing for the military, entertaining troops in Kuwait, Afghanistan, Italy, Dubai, Cyprus, Greenland and even WAY up at the North Pole. Yes, he's been to the actual north pole.

With an eye on social justice and in an effort to be a better global citizen Matthew has partnered with Spread the Net, Rick Mercer's charitable foundation, and SoChange a Canadian based NGO, to perform in and produce shows that raise money for Malaria relief in Africa. More about the Mosquito's Suck show can be found here (www.dontbiteme.ca).