

Ryan Belleville Bio:

GQ magazine called him “Not just a great Canadian comic, but one of the best around anywhere.” He has toured and performed across the globe to hundreds of thousands of people. He is a favourite at the Montreal Just for Laughs festival and has performed dozens of television appearances on CBC’s Halifax Comedy Festival, The Winnipeg Comedy Festival, Comedy Now, and CBC’s The Debaters. South of the boarder he has been seen on Comedy Central’s Live at Gotham, CBS’s The Late Late Show, and MTV’s Busted.

As an actor he has made turns on SyFy’s Wynonna Earp, and CW’s The LA Complex, and starred in CTV’s Satisfaction, as well as FOX’s sitcom Life on a Stick. He has also had starring roles in the feature films National Lampoons Going the Distance, Disney’s Stuck in the Suburbs, Step Dogs and the award winning family film Finn on the Fly.

Among his many writing credits is Almost Heroes, which he not only starred in but created with his brother Jason. It is now available on Hulu.

Recently he lived out one of his lifes dreams and performed at the Concert Hall of the Sydney Opera House. Currently he stars on the hit CBC show Working Mom’s which begins its second season in December 2017