

Ryan Belleville Bio:

Ryan Belleville

Ryan Belleville is one of Canada's best known comedians and comedic actors. GQ magazine called him "Not just a great Canadian comic, but one of the best around anywhere." For the last three years he has played Lionel on the Netflix/CBC hit show Workin Moms. He has ten appearances at the renowned Just for Laughs Festival and dozens of televised appearances including CBC's Halifax Comedy Festival, The Winnipeg Comedy Festival, Comedy Now, Live at Gotham, CBS's The Late Late Show, and MTV's Busted. Ryan is also a regular on CBC's The Debaters.

As an actor he has made turns on SyFy's Wynonna Earp, and CW's The LA Complex, and starred in CTV's Satisfaction, Hulu's Almost Heroes, as well as FOX's sitcom Life on a Stick. He has also had starring roles in the feature films National Lampoons Going the Distance, Disney's Stuck in the Suburbs, Step Dogs and the award winning family film Finn on the Fly.

Proud father, and husband. He currently lives in Los Angeles.